

Picasso, Picasso,
Where are you now?

The goats have left the farm and are roaming a field ~~are~~
and ~~at~~ alone and Cry for Picasso, "We are your GOAT!"

The multiplicity of the clusters clusters greatly with the singular "GOAT!". Is it implication that the animal has shifted to be acronym form? Many questions rolled in a single poem - precisely what poetry should be!

Pablo Picasso, Where Are You Now?

The goats have left the farm and are roaming afield and are alone and cry for Picasso,
“We are your GOAT!”
