feces on the mindbeyond underlaying layers rooted in the center of the stem center of the stomachupstairs from where it was before it was there neuters night thermal cold gaseous light reversed into darkness cascade wave unwoven back to watersad sputum ocean film flam waterskin sunlight eye wink for my eyes only again in sky light lost in the inevitable awareness of truth in not knowing never knowing realization of therock beneath our hands bruised and scraping palmsful of blood on indifferent stone satisfying with purpose to fill the hands with something to caress the rough rock with love and gratitude skinscape undiminished regenerating scabs glorious pain the window to enlightenment never attained nor enlightened by weight

seemingly heavier on each new days pushing of the rock
